Directions:

1. Using TODALS, recreate this choropleth map with a legend. Your legend should have 4 colors, showing Very High Human Development, High Human Development, Medium Human Development, and Low Human Development.
2. In addition to TODALS, put a star over and label a country you randomly selected.
3. Finally, using this map as reference: <http://hdr.undp.org/en/countries> find and label the ranking of your country. You can mouse-over each country using the weblink to find the current HDI ranking of each country.
